Halloween Party

On Friday, October 24th, clients, caregivers and staff arrived in costume and ready to dance the night away at the annual KANDU Halloween Party! Best Events transformed the Banquet Hall with ghoulish décor and provided the evening's spook-tacular treats. Music was courtesy of our very own "DJ Devil-ish Dana" and activities included costume contests, door prizes and, of course, dancing! This event is a favorite for clients and staff alike and everyone in attendance had a howlin' good time!

Senior Fairs

KANDU's Day Services/Memory Care program participated in two local senior fairs in October, allowing us to spread the word about our expanding program offerings.

The Beloit Senior Fair took place on the 7th at The Eclipse Center. Program Manager Julie Smith and Executive Director Gary Bersell spoke with attendees about the Day Services/Memory Care program as Signe Whalen represented KANDU's new Guardian Advocate Program. Health and Wellness Roundup was the featured expo theme.

On Friday, October 24th, Day Services/Memory Care also participated in the Rock County Senior Fair at Janesville's Holiday Inn Express. The event's theme, Health and Wellness Under the Big Top, made for a fun, circus booth design opportunity where visitors were able to peruse photos and discuss program specifics with KANDU staff.

Rock County Fall Bridal Show

On Sunday, October 12th, Best Events presented the Rock County Fall Bridal Show at the Pontiac Convention Center. Guests had the opportunity to peruse informational booths from area vendors featuring samples, demonstrations and company representatives to answer questions and offer ideas to assist couples in planning their perfect day. Hundreds of dollars in cash prizes were awarded throughout the event, along with vendor product giveaways. Plans are already under way for January's Wedding Open House Weekend and the 2015 Rock County Spring Bridal Show in March. Stay tuned for more information about both of these upcoming events!

Aktion Club Conference

For the third consecutive year, the Aktion Club of Janesville attended the Kiwanis Wisconsin/Upper Michigan District's Training and Leadership Conference on October 18th. Twelve members and three club advisors departed early Saturday morning for Fond Du Lac aboard the Pontiac Limo Bus. Members had the opportunity to socialize with members of other Aktion clubs, learn about new Kiwanis objectives and develop ways to improve their local club. Attendees also worked on two service projects: completing action hero capes and friendship bracelets for a nearby children's hospital. A talent contest, lunch, dancing and a meeting for advisors were among the other activities for the day. Janesville's Aktion Club received several awards, recognizing the past year's achievements. It was a long but rewarding day for all who attended.
