February 28, 2018

Grapes & Hops 2018

KANDU's Grapes & Hops proved to be a phenomenal success once again at The Armory. On February 16th, local Celebrity Pourers served samples of over 40 varieties of wine and beer, all competing for the coveted title of "People's Choice Pourer," an honor reserved for the guests' favorite Celebrity team. Themed booth designs showcased each team's creativity, including references to the Candyland board game, vintage mobsters, college fraternities, the Prohibition era and Frozen. Best Events prepared hors d'oeuvres that were not only delicious, but also paired well with the evening's featured beverages. Additionally, thank you to Colony Brands for the delectable dessert donation and Sugarlands Distillery for the blackberry moonshine, used to concoct a delicious and very popular Blackberry Sunset mixed drink. Duane Worden provided the perfect entertainment with his crowd-pleasing renditions of soft rock hits and a multitude of live and silent auction items were available throughout the evening. The top Celebrity Pourers were awarded for their success in selling tickets, and obtaining donations and sponsorships.

Congratulations to Our Winning Celebrities:

Art Gallery Grand Opening
