JANESVILLE — Amanda Pellizzi, the vice president of human resources at Prent Corporation, has recently joined KANDU Industries Inc., board of directors

Pellizzi

Pellizzi graduated from UW-Whitewater with a degree in human resource management in 2005. She also graduated from the Leadership Development Academy of Rock County in 2019.

Pellizzi said in the press release that she learned about KANDU through their Return-to-Work program.

Also after meeting with Kathy Hansen, KANDU's executive director, she learned more about KANDU's programs and knew she wanted to get involved.

Board President Joel Chappelle said in the press release that KANDU is excited that Amanda has joined and is looking forward to what she can bring to the team.

"Amanda brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to KANDU, and we are confident that her passion and expertise will help us continue to fulfill our mission to provide premier programming and services to people with disabilities in Rock County."

Pellizzi has joined KANDU's board as the organization announces it has purchased the 110,000 square foot Blackhawk Technical College Advanced Manufacturing training facility in Milton.

According to the release, KANDU purchased the facility as part of its strategic plan to serve more community members with disabilities and to provide a better work/life experience for its existing 200 clients.

Pellizzi will be joining the other board members as they will be guiding the organization as it continues serving the Rock County community.
