BRIEFS

KANDU Industries names new operations director

JANESVILLE — KANDU Industries Inc. has promoted Jake Reed to operations director.

Reed began his career at

Reed

KANDU in 2003. He served as the organization's production director for the last three years and his job was to ensure a safe workplace environment for people with disabilities and disadvantages; sales, customer relationship management and revenue generation to support KANDU's programs and services.

In his new role, Reed he will now be developing strategies for saving costs agency wide, efficiency, and revenue generation; safety policies and procedures; building and grounds maintenance; compliance; and IT system management.

The executive director, Kathy Hansen, said in a press release that his talent for developing creative systems made him the perfect candidate to lead KANDU'S operations strategy.

"When KANDU is faced with a unique challenge, we can depend on Jake to see it through time and again," Hansen said. "He is highly regarded by our board, clients and staff and I'm confident that he will continue to bring positive change at KANDU in his new role."

Police Department hosting annual Kid's Bike Rodeo to teach kids about bike safety

JANESVILLE — The Janesville Police Department will host its annual Kid's Bike Rodeo in downtown Janesville on Saturday, June 3.

The event will be from 9 a.m. to noon with registration at 8:30 a.m. in the YMCA parking lot next to Town Square Festival Square.

The free event will include bike and helmets checks and an obstacle course for kids to learn bike safety skills. Community businesses including Michael's Cycles, Velocity Multi-Sport, the Janesville Velo Club and the Bike Elves will be helping with bike and helmet checks.

The Janesville Police Bike Officers will also be demonstrating bike safety.

Pizza from Marco's Pizza or hot dogs cooked by the police department will be provided. A helmet is required in order to participate. Bikes and helmets will be provided on-site.

Whitewater library to hold dementia informational session

WHITEWATER — The Irvin L. Young Memorial Library in Whitewater will host an informational session on dementia Thursday, May 18, at 6:30 p.m. in the library's Community Room.

There is no cost to attend this event, registration is requested.

The one-hour session is a discussion led by a Dementia Friends Champion. It is not a training session. The session includes defining dementia, explaining what it's like to live with the disease, and some tips for communicating with people who have dementia, according to a media release.

Advance registration is available on the library's website. Registration and additional information are available via email at sfrench@whitewater-wi.gov or phone at 262-458-2782.
